

Wine, Women & Song

*A summer tour of concerts
featuring jazz birds
Sarah Bradley and Monica Louis.*

Bring a friend, your partner or a group for moments of fun, fine food, good music and company.

Monica Louis, a polyglot globetrotter, has performed in Lima to London, Paris and Monaco, Amsterdam, Brussels and many New Zealand festivals having moved here in 2004. She studied jazz vocals at the Sweelinck Conservatory in Amsterdam and London's Wigmore Hall. With her own trio and band, Monica toured Europe working with reputable bands including the famous Glenn Miller Orchestra.

Sarah Bradley studied musical theatre in New York City where she lived for 10 years performing cabaret and jazz at many of the city's hot spots like Don't Tell Mama and Eighty Eights. She has recorded with Diva's from down under and loves performing the Great American Songbook.

Sarah currently hosts the Good Morning Show on TV1.
